

Broadband over power lines is an ill-conceived potential disaster for public service, emergency, marine and other radio services. It will disrupt communication and deny the use of the airwaves to current licensees. Please do not approve this truly awful technology.